Job Options

UNILIN believes very strongly in the power of young talent. That is why we invest in the Campus Recruitment Program which is aimed at talented starters and young professionals who share our entrepreneurial spirit. We like to start with an exploratory conversation to assess your potential and determine whether you fit our company culture.

Every year we have opportunities for starters in various departments: from Production to R&D accross IT and Finance to Supply Chain, Sales and Marketing.

As a young Graduate you start in one of these departments, where you get to know our organization, products and unique company culture. Through challenging projects we help you discover which role suits you best within this field. We provide the necessary coaching and support so you can fulfil your potential.

Selection Procedure

You can apply via <http://jobs.unilin.com> or by sending an e-mail with CV and cover letter to Marie.Wieleman@unilin.com.

During an exploratory conversation with HR we'd like to get to know you and assess your potential and fit with our company culture. If this is positive, the second conversation will be with the manager of your future team followed by a tour in production.

UNILIN. FOR A SMART CAREER.
